

AND NOW FOR THE REST OF THE STORY

Have you heard the whole story about us at Lifforming? Like the one in which we are training 30 Hampton University students in Virginia in 2011-2012 to coach inner city youth in Portsmouth, Virginia to make “choices with character”; all at no cost to them and we provide the training, monitoring, and the materials.

Or the Gang Reduction workshops that we are providing in 2012 as our service to help community workers regain momentum in the battle for our broken communities. The Gang Reduction Program has already been making a difference in the lives of youth for three years. We want to take it to new venues in 2012.

Or the story of our training over 100 World Vision leaders in 2011 in the Philippines at cost so that they can serve their country that is now being ravaged by floods, disease, and despair. Many have said it was the most powerful training they had received for community transformation.

Or the story of our training over 125 young people and pastors in Cape Town South Africa at no cost to them to be ambassadors of reconciliation during the riots that ravaged their communities in 2008; any which could be reignited at any time without their presence and help. One of them was so impacted by our training that he convinced 400 farmers in South Africa to purchase round tables and chairs so that the laborers in their fields could have the evening meal become the highlight of their day as a family.

Or the hundreds of scholarships we have provided to emerging leaders to be trained to steward transformation through their relationships and organizations? These include missionaries temporarily off the field, church planting teams, students, military being deployed, and those beginning again after incarceration.

All of these stories and hundreds more are part of what we do through our non-profit arm of Lifforming, named TLC, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. They give meaning and results to the design of our 3- circle logo on our letterhead so that we are “Assembling the Whole Story”. (See www.7mcoaching.com to view the brief video of the logo)

These stories integrate individual/family/community, personal/relational/organizational, body/soul/spirit, mind/will/emotions, and train/coach/lead. Through this unique transforming integration we envision an inter-generational movement of authentic leaders and communities who live and activate God-sized dreams.

Because we believe that God's life-purpose dreams are the answer to someone's crying need we are committed to continue. However, we cannot respond to those needs without some extra help this year. We have had some of our vendors who owe us money declare bankruptcy and we are as "mean and lean" as we can be.

Now, more than ever before, we need to reach out to our Lifeforming family for your support and partnership. There has never been a more important time for fulfilling our vision to "provide the highest quality coach certification from a thoroughly Christian value base to leaders in every culture who will reproduce a transformational coaching movement, penetrating every major vocational sphere of influence in the nations."

As the economic and generational gap grows worldwide, we want to continue to give the opportunity for deserving men and women to experience personal transformation while being trained to coach and lead others authentically toward their destiny.

We would like you to be a part of this movement to penetrate every nation, every vocational sphere, with Christian coaches. We are excited to see the difference your response will make.

Please help us "Assemble the Whole Story" and be part of the stories of transformation that we are stewarding. Your tax-deductible gift given by December 31, 2011 will make the difference. By helping us now we will also send you the latest e-book by Dr. Umidi, Transformational Intelligence: Creating Cultures of Honor @ Home and Work.
